

EAST AFRICAN SCHOOL OF LIBRARY AND INFORMATION SCIENCE

STAFF PROFILE:

DAVID LUYOMBYA

	Name : David Luyombya Title : Associate Professor of Records and Archives Management Department : Records & Archives Management Research Focus — Records and Archives Management Education, Digital Capture, digital cultural heritage, Enhancing Accountability and Transparency through Records and Archives Systems, Set Up and Review Records Systems; Manage the Changeover from Paper to Electronic Records Management Systems, archives, library and digital information management
Overview <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Professional Summary Assoc. Prof. Luyombya David began his career as a Librarian and was very instrumental in establishing and setting up the Taso Library in 1993. He ventured into Records and Archives management and later joined EASLIS as Assistant Lecturer in 2000. He grew through the academic ranks, obtaining a Doctor of Philosophy. He has published extensively, supervised several students (including Masters and PhD). 	Publications <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Recent Publications <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Oloo, E. K and Luyombya, D. (2023). Application of Social Media in Marketing Library Resources and Services at Kyambogo University Library, Uganda. Library Philosophy and Practice (e-journal). 7765. Luyombya, D.; Sendikadiwa, E and Mulindwa, E. (2023). Examining Archives Management Practices and Service Delivery in Mpigi District Local Government in Uganda. Information Development Journal ID-23-0014 Namujuzi, S. and Luyombya, D. (2020). Access and use of agricultural records at Uganda National Archives and Records Centre. ESARBICA Journal 39(1), 99-113. At: https://www.ajol.info/index.php/esarjo/issue/view/19452 	Grants <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Archivist on a research team on Digitizing Academic Records and Processes (DARP) for improved service delivery in the Makerere University Academic Registrar's Division funded by the Government of Uganda Research and Innovation 	Activities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> — HoD, Records and Archives Mgt. Dept. EASLIS — Member of Senate — in-charge of the Standards and Competencies Committee of the Uganda Records Managers and Archivists

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Education and Training — PhD, University College London (UCL), UK, Archival Science, (2010) — Master of Arts in Archives & Records, Monash University, Melbourne, Australia (1998), — Bachelor of Library and Information Science, Makerere University, Kampala (1993) — Fulbright Scholar, Pittsburgh University, USA (2015-2016) 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4. Luyombya, D and Ndagire, S. (2020). Records Management procedures and service delivery in private universities: a case study of the Islamic University in Uganda. Journal of the South African Society of Archivists 53, 1-19. 5. Luyombya, D. (2018). Management of Records and Archives in Uganda's Public Sector. Handbook of Research on Heritage Management and Preservation. pp.275-297. Available at: https://www.igi-global.com/book/handbook-research-heritage-management-preservation/179828 DOI: 10.4018/978-1-5225-3137-1 6. Luyombya, D.; Kiyingi, G. W. and Naluwooza, M. (2018). The Nature and Utilisation of Archival Records Deposited in Makerere University Library, Uganda. Handbook of Research on Heritage Management and Preservation. pp.96-113. Available at: https://www.igi-global.com/book/handbook-research-heritage-management-preservation/179828.DOI: 10.4018/978-1-5225-3137-1 	Fund (RIF) and Master Card <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Project:334 -Empowerment for Research Capacity in Knowledge and Information Production and Sharing for Socio-Economic Development in Uganda (KIPS) a project on strengthening research capacity in library and information science (LIS). Funded by Mak-Sida collaboration 	Association (URMAA) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> — Curricula Development and Reviews — Member of the Board of Makerere Academic Policies and Appeals Committee
---	--	--	---

